

GULF COAST MUSIC 2016 SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER

Alliance of the Arts “Fall for the Arts” Concert ~ Saturday, October 15, 2016
Arrive by 10:00 AM in white tops and black bottoms to perform 10:30-10:50 AM

Gulf Coast Music School will have a booth and table with information and live music to share with the community. Our not for profit group, Friends of Gulf Coast Music, will also be fundraising for scholarships. This group is made up of all of our students and families. We would like students taking turns at our booth; answering questions about their instrument, demonstrating (playing), selling Pura Vida bracelets, and helping people try the student violins that I will supply. We will have a sign up sheet with times listed at violin group classes on Monday and cello group class on Thursday.

Information from the organizers -

Overall Event Schedule:

- 8 – 9:30AM Artists and organization check-in and set-up. Vehicles will be allowed to drive up to the back of most tenting. We will send you a map soon so that you can plan for your space. Vehicles must be removed by 9:30AM.
- 8:00 – 9:30AM Food Vendor check in and set-up. Fencing will be closed at this time.
- 10:00AM Event opens.
- 10:30AM Our Performance begins
- 3:00PM Participants and vendors tear down. Fencing reopened.

Suzuki Association of South Florida ~ University of Miami Violin Workshop October 22-23, 2016

Please join us for this fun event! I have emailed the information and registration form to all of our families. The group classes will be on Saturday and master classes (lessons) will be on Sunday. Master class lessons with Gabe Bolkosky and Charles Krigbaum will be offered on a first come, first serve basis on Sunday, from 10:30am to 3pm at the University of Miami. They will NOT be taking requests for a particular teacher. Both teachers are amazing!

Practice Challenge 9/19/16 - 11/28/16

Play 200 review pieces with your teacher’s assigned focus point for a win!

(Example - play with an open wrist)

Game boards will be at kept at violin and cello group classes and updated each week with your progress. This is a challenge for each student, at any level violin or cello.

Nano block Mini Collection Music Instruments Micro Building Blocks -

